JFK To Increase Military Forces

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was reported today to have decided on strengthening U.S. armed forces through larger draft calls and intensified recruiting because of the Berlin crisis. Responsible sources said the President will add three new divisions and build up others to bring Army and Marine strength to 20 divisions. This course of action was decided on instead of resorting to a declaration of national emergency and a call-up of National Guard and the reserves. One high administration official who said he did not expect activation of the reserves now, pointed out that this decision could be reversed quickly if Kennedy thought conditions were getting worse. This official was familiar with details of a meeting late Wednesday at which Kennedy and his top advisers reached a final decision on what steps to take to meet Russian threats to Berlin. Kennedy is telling the Western allies of these moves this week before reporting to the American people Tuesday night and Congress next Wednesday. Officials said the contemplated steps, in addition to strengthening U.S. forces for the Berlin crisis, were designed to increase the ability of this country and its allies to meet Communist pressures elsewhere in the world. The American people will get the details Tuesday night in a presidential radio-television report to the nation. Kennedy will speak on all networks for 30 minutes starting at 10 p.m. EDT Tuesday. The President will send a special report to Congress the following day. The White House kept details of the decisions secret, but speculation from congressional and other sources ranged across a wide range of possibilities. There seemed a general agreement that Kennedy would seek a $2 billion to $3 billion increase in the $43 billion defense budget. It also was considered likely that measures would be taken to expand the airborne bomber alert and keep more ships at sea.

PS City Official Indicted By LA Federal Grand Jury

By FRED C. WEIGEL
Sun Staff Writer

A smashing hand from the past caught up with a Palm Springs official Wednesday, more than a year after federal postal authorities began an investigation into the mailing of obscene matters through the mail.

Indicted on eight charges of sending obscene material through the mail, William Frederic Crosson, 39, Palm Springs director of public works today is facing a $5,000 fine or five years in jail, or both, on each count if found guilty of the charges.

Crosson, who lives at 2401 N. Palm Canyon Dr., with his wife and three children, was arrested last May 2 by postal inspectors and posted $1,000 bond when arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Theodore Hocke in Los Angeles.

Stan Jensen, U.S. postal inspector in charge of the case, said that Crosson advertised photos of scantily-clad models in national men's magazines under the name of "Billie" Crosson. Jensen said that the obscene matter followed personal letters from individuals responding to the advertisements.

Local Shock
Palm Springs officials, unaware that Crosson was in trouble, were shocked at the news of the Federal Grand Jury indictments late Wednesday afternoon.

City Manager Dan Wagner has asked Capt. Orest Johnson and Det. Lt. Robert White for a complete report on the entire matter, holding back any comment until after the investigation is completed.

"I am investigating the matter now and will make no comment until after I have all the facts," said Wagner.

Crosson, contacted yesterday immediately after the indictments were announced, said:

"I have nothing to say. It's unjustified, that's all. I haven't heard anything about it (the indictment) and I don't want to say anything until I speak to my attorney. Everybody knows more than me. They're all jumping on my back." Crosson then added: "I thought they'd drop it. They haven't a thing. My lawyer said they'd drop it. I've got nothing to say now. I got nothing to win and everything to lose."

Crosson's attorney is Stanley Fleishman of Los Angeles, who handled the Playboy magazine case some time ago.

Returned To Job
Crosson came to work this morning, but shortly after arriving he returned home. Wednesday.

50 FLEE HOMES AS WINDS BOOST BLAZE

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Unexpected winds up to 50 miles an hour sent a forest fire roaring out of control in the Santa Cruz Mountains today, forcing some 50 persons to leave their homes.

The fire area increased suddenly from 200 to 1,500 acres in the parched brush and timber-covered ravines 40 miles south of San Francisco.

The blaze broke out Tuesday night on the slopes of Mt. Umunhum. On top of the peak is the Air Force's Almaden radar station which was threatened by flames.

Thirty-four persons were reported to have left cabins in the Twin Creeks summer resort two miles west of New Almaden and south of Mt. Umunhum. Several more families left Wright's Station on the west edge of the fire early today.

Tom Neil, California Division of Forestry spokesman, said one cabin had burned and one fire fighter was injured in a fall.

"We weren't sure for a time whether we'd get our men back safely," Neil said of today's blow-up. "We had to pull all our men back, and out and we don't know now where we can set up new lines."

One hundred more men were brought in from Southern California, bringing the total fire-fighters to 400, including 100 air men.

Elsewhere on the Pacific Coast, forest fires appeared under control.

At Half-Year Mark, Kennedy Pleased With Home Progress, Concerned Abroad

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy ended his first six months in the White House today with satisfaction about progress on the domestic front but serious concern about international developments.

He is happy about the support Congress has given to his legislative program so far — but dismayed about and determined to keep fighting against strong opposition to his aid to education and aid programs.

Physically, Kennedy appears to have recovered much of his old zip after a back injury that had him on crutches for two weeks in June.

The 44-year-old President also seems again to be showing the forceful confidence which was one of his trademarks until the Cuban invasion debacle subdued him and many key aides.

With the Berlin crisis building up steam, with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev rattling his saber and the Western Allies searching for plans to meet the Red threat, Kennedy is beset by problems which were on his doorstep when he arrived and have been growing ever since.

Threat To Laos Continues
The Communist threat to Laos still exists, and South Viet Nam is still a trouble spot which could breed more conflict unless Communist dangers let up.

Kennedy was asked at his news conference Wednesday to comment on the "vicissitudes of the presidency" in his first half-year. In

New Brutality Suit Brought Against County

INDIO — The second law suit in two months charging Indio sheriff's deputies with brutality was filed here Wednesday in Superior Court.

Rosalie M. Wright of 71-306 Sahara Dr., Rancho Mirage, asked $50,000 general damages plus other costs in the newest suit, charging that a deputy in the Indio County Jail "held her by the arm and broke her arm over his leg."

The suit was filed after Mrs. Wright's claims were denied by the Board of Supervisors June 19. She claimed that the arm-breaking incident took place about 11 p.m. on April 9, 1961, in the Jail Division of the Sheriff's Indio office.

Another suit charging brutality was filed against the Indio office June 6 by Mabel Stafford of Palm Springs, a nurse, who asked $125,000 in damages.

Jurors Visiting Cooley's Home

BAKERSFIELD (UPI) — Ten men and two women jurors in the murder trial of former Western band leader Donnell (Spade) Cooley were to visit the one-time television star's ranch home today to see where he allegedly choked and stomped his wife to death on April 3.

The state contends that Cooley, 30, tortured his estranged wife, Ella Mae, 37, at their Willow Springs home 20 miles south of here before she was pronounced dead at a nearby hospital.

His reply he noted that problems are facing the United States all over the globe and at home, too, where "we still have this problem of rather chronic unemployment."

"My judgement is that the American people and this government and the Congress must realize that we are in a long struggle which we will be involved with for a great many years against very powerful countries," Kennedy said.

At home, Kennedy said he has been "pleased with the progress we have made internally" in bringing the nation out of a recession. He also voiced pleasure at congressional passage of some bills which Democrats have tried unsuccessfully to push through for a number of years.

CHAMBER BUDGET GIVEN INCREASE

The Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce budget for fiscal 1961-62 was revised upward by $10,000 this morning to provide for expenditure of increased advertising funds provided in the new city budget.

The City Council earlier this month increased the chamber's advertising allotment to $90,000. Last year's allocation was $80,000. Chamber leaders had sought $112,500.

On recommendation of the special budget allocation committee headed by William Smith, the board of directors voted $17,000 for advertising; up from $14,000; another $35,000 for the Convention and Visitors Bureau, increased by $1,000, and set $38,000 for publicity and promotion of our resort community's attractions, an increase of $6,000.

A resolution was adopted asking Palm Springs merchants to look into the problem of downtown commercial vacancies, with a view toward developing a plan to aid in opening of new businesses. It also urged that the merchants consider formation of a Downtown Merchants Association to operate more or less independently from the Chamber.

This action followed lengthy discussion under the chairmanship of President Joel Stone that brought an airing of difficulties and the reasons for store vacancies that existed before the close of the tourist season.

Also discussed were plans for an intensive Chamber of Commerce membership drive.

Thousands Stream From Russian Area of Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin authorities cut red tape today to speed the processing of thousands of East German refugees streaming into this isolated Western outpost.

As hundreds pour in daily, authorities are chartering commercial planes to augment regularly scheduled flights for getting the refugees across the 110-mile strip of Communist East German territory to West Germany.

West Berlin officials considered cutting from four days to two the time it normally takes to process the refugees.

Officials said they had a "battle" on their hands handling the throngs in West Berlin's Marienfelde refugee center.

Refugees, fearful that conclusion of a Soviet-proposed peace treaty will slam shut the "emergency exit" to the West, are pouring into West Berlin at near-record numbers. More than 18,000 East Germans have fled their homeland this month alone.

A large number of refugees in recent days slipped across the border to attend a huge Protestant religious rally in West Berlin. More than 20,000 Germans mixed politics and prayer Wednesday night at the Protestant rally. The meeting originally was planned for both East and West Berlin, but it was confined to the Western sector when the Communists outlawed the assembly on the ground that it supported "militarism."

Under a final barrage of questions by Israeli Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner, Eichmann admitted he was ordered to ship all 800,000 Hungarian Jews, including children, to the Nazi death camps.

Defense attorney Dr. Robert Servatius said he would begin re-direct examination after the court ruled on the prosecution's request that Eichmann's so-called confession to a Dutch writer he admitted, as evidence.

29 Palms Road Work Approved
SACRAMENTO — A new law signed Wednesday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown will provide a new state highway into Joshua Tree National Monument near Twentynine Palms.

The proposal was authored by Sen. Stanford C. Shaw, D-Ontario, and approved by the 1961 legislature.

Walls of Water Hit Homes; Cost Runs in Millions

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — A devastating "monsoon-like" cloudburst struck this capital city of West Virginia as it slept early today, cascading walls of water through scores of homes, tossing them down hillsides and killing at least a dozen persons.

Gov. W. W. (Wally) Barron declared a state of emergency and announced he was considering asking President Kennedy to proclaim the flood-hit district a national disaster area.

The vicious rainfall, capping a week's downpour, sent waters over their banks in the Kanawha River and nine large creeks bordering the city, bringing with it waves 15 feet high. Many of the victims were trapped in their bedrooms. Others perished when the swirling water engulfed them as they fled.

Twelve bodies were accounted for. At least four others were missing.

Mayor John Shanklin said damage was expected to mount "into the millions of dollars" to the state's largest city. Charleston, with 85,706 residents, stretches nearly six miles along the narrow Kanawha River valley and is rimmed by foothills of the Appalachian Mountain range.

Wary rescue workers set up a makeshift morgue in the fire department, not far from the main boulevard that courses in front of the capitol building where a 30-foot section of pavement collapsed.

"It looks like a monsoon struck," said patrolman William Blackhurst. "Trees are lying over the roads and one section of a four-lane highway looks like somebody just bulldozed dirt over it."

Questioning of Eichmann Ends
JERUSALEM (UPI) — The prosecution today completed the cross-examination of Adolf Eichmann after the former SS colonel admitted he sent 30,000 Budapest Jews on a "death march" in 1944.

But Eichmann maintained, as he has throughout the 10 days of grueling questioning by the prosecution, that he was not really to blame.

Under a final barrage of questions by Israeli Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner, Eichmann admitted he was ordered to ship all 800,000 Hungarian Jews, including children, to the Nazi death camps.

Defense attorney Dr. Robert Servatius said he would begin re-direct examination after the court ruled on the prosecution's request that Eichmann's so-called confession to a Dutch writer he admitted, as evidence.

French Attack Tunisian Forces
TUNIS, Tunisia (UPI) — French paratroopers under an umbrella of fighter planes today attacked Tunisian forces besieging the Bizerte naval base. Tunisia charged the French hurled "bombs and rockets" into the battle.

Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba, accusing France of "premeditated aggression," announced he was severing diplomatic relations with France. He said he would demand an urgent meeting of the United Nations Security Council.

Winton Battles For Control of Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton Jr. claimed today he was within seven votes of winning the battle for leadership of the state Assembly.

The Merced Democrat also said he felt that if he wins the post of speaker of the Assembly, it would help Gov. Edmund G. Brown's expected bid for re-election.

JFK Fights To Put Over School Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy and his legislative lieutenants applied pressure today on 319 vulnerable congressmen in an effort to rescue the administration's school bill from a House Rules Committee pigeonhole.

On the receiving end of the administration's drive are congressmen representing about 3,800 school districts which receive federal aid under the long standing "impacted areas" program.

The school districts in question are impacted—or crowded—with large numbers of children from nearby military bases or other federal installations. The districts now share about $300 million in federal aid each year.

Extension of the program is part of the administration's new $850 million-a-year general public school bill, which the powerful rules committee voted to table on Tuesday.

The administration's squeeze play strategy involved serving notice that the impacted areas program would not be extended alone. Chairman Wayne Morse, D-Ore., of the Senate Education Committee flatly said today the program "will and should come to an end unless Congress proceeds to pass a general education bill" which includes them.

President Kennedy, questioned about a report that he would veto a separate impacted areas bill, Wednesday left the issue up in the air. The President said in a news conference that the extension of the more limited aid package does not meet the federal government's responsibilities.

But he side stepped making a direct comment on prospects for a veto.

Other congressional news: Farm Bill: The House Agriculture Committee was expected today to formally approve a catch-all farm bill continuing the administration's plan for cutting down surplus wheat. But the committee has left out a proposal to give the agriculture secretary power to devise new farm price support and production control programs for other commodities. This proposal was considered the "heart" of the administration's farm bill recommendation.

Drugs: Senate investigators heard a Cornell University professor say the drug makers' marketing practices are a "serious health menace." Dr. Walter Modell, calling for federal regulation, said doctors are overwhelmed by "mumbo jumbo" advertising.

Mrs. Shattuck Succumbs at 57

Mrs. Mary Jane Shattuck, 57, prominent Los Angeles club leader and former Palm Springs resident, died Wednesday at Pasadena Huntington Memorial Hospital after an illness of several weeks.

The wife of Edward S. Shattuck, former Republican National Committeeman, Mrs. Shattuck for many years was active in a wide range of philanthropic, cultural, and political affairs. She was the former owner of the Palm Garden Apartments, 2401 N. Palm Canyon Dr.

Services will be at 9:30 a.m. Friday in the Church of the Resurrection at Forest Lawn in Glendale with the Rev. Charles R. Bell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pasadena, officiating.

Mrs. Shattuck is survived by her husband, two step-daughters, Mrs. Georgia Culhane of Glendale and Mrs. Elizabeth Kaak of Pasadena, and eight grandchildren.

Winton and Assemblyman Jesse M. (Big Daddy) Unruh, D-Los Angeles, are fighting for a 41-vote majority of the Assembly.

"Brown has said he won't take sides in the fight for speaker and I agree with him," Winton said. "The executive branch of government should not interfere with the legislative branch."

"But I think if I won it would be the best thing for the governor. I think it would solve some of his problems."

Unruh, strongman of the California Democratic party has claimed 60 votes for the speakership. Winton said he had heard of Unruh claims to 68 of the 80 Assembly votes, including 43 of the 47 Democratic members and 25 of the 33 Republicans.

Claims Increased Support

Winton claimed he had won over some of Unruh's pledged votes and now has 34.

At the end of the 1961 legislature, Winton announced his candidacy for the post to give assemblymen a choice of leaders.

At that time, he was said to have the support of the eight members. Two weeks ago, after a swing through Southern California, Winton claimed his support had risen to 31 votes.

Winton said the Assembly "is getting tired of Unruh's arm twisting. I expect some more pledges soon, and when I get a majority I think more will switch to me."

Unruh claimed recently that he got assemblymen behind his bid for the speakership by "negotiation and compromise."

Winton's claim that a victory for him would benefit Brown stemmed from an apparent Republican strategem to link Brown and Unruh together in connection with the GOP charge that Unruh is Democratic "boss" of the state.

Berlin: Nobody Wants War Over It But...

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Between East and West, over the issue of Berlin, there was agreement on only one point this week. Nobody wanted a war over it.

For their part, the United States, Britain and France sought to avoid a war by miscalculation by clearly warning Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that they would defend both their own rights in West Berlin and the freedom of its two million inhabitants.

And, to take a phrase from a famous American politician, they, in effect, told Khrushchev: "Let's look at the record."

Khrushchev has described West Berlin as a bone in his throat and the situation between East and West Berlin as abnormal, threatening world peace.

Soviet to Blame

The three Western notes delivered this week to Moscow told the Soviet premier that if world peace was threatened, it was he who threatened it and if the situation in Berlin is abnormal, it was the Soviets who created it.

Here is the record: An Allied agreement of Sept. 12, 1944, defined occupation zones for a defeated Germany, with Berlin to be treated as an area separate and distinct.

On May 7, 1945, Germany surrendered unconditionally and on July 17, the Potsdam conference began.

It divided Germany into four zones to be governed as one unit, both administratively and economically. It agreed that definitive German frontier would be determined at an all-German peace conference and that all peace settlements would be drafted by a council of foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

It also recognized a Soviet claim

Taxpayer Group Fights For Addition to Budget

INDIO — With Monday probably the day Riverside County Supervisors will decide the fate of Assessor Eric Waite's request for an additional $20,000 in his budget for salaries and wages, Coachella Valley Taxpayers Assn. is intensifying its drive to gain support of Waite's request, according to Gay Smith, association secretary.

The request has been strongly supported by the Coachella Valley Taxpayers Assn. on the strength of evidence that several million dollars of tax revenues are being lost each year because of land not on the tax rolls or carried at an appraisal far below its current fair market value, Smith said.

"A representative of the association spent several hours with Waite Friday," Smith said, "and has confirmed our earlier feeling that there is a need for this equalization program and that it should be completed as soon as possible."

Waite told the association that with personnel in his department at present level, it will take at least another six years to complete property value equalization throughout the county. He states that if the $20,000 is granted by the Supervisors it will be possible to complete the program within four years.

The funds, he states, would permit him to put 11 seasonal appraisers on a full time basis and thus make it possible to carry on appraisal work all year long.

"It is the feeling of Coachella Valley Taxpayers Association and of other organizations in the Valley that the return to the County through rapid equalization will be many times greater than the $20,000 it will cost," Smith stated.

Waite's requested budget has received the backing of Coachella Valley Farm Bureau Center and Coachella Chamber of Commerce as well as that of the Taxpayers Association.

Battle Against Red Scale On

The annual search for the citrus pest, red scale, will begin next week in the Palm Springs area. Homer L. Heard, manager of the Riverside County Citrus Pest Control District, announced today.

He said that residents' cooperation with inspectors last year succeeded in bringing the spread of red scale to a new low last year.

"Each year red scale has been found in the area," Heard said. "The infestations range from light to heavy. It is advisable that where plants are heavily infested they be removed and destroyed by burning. Destruction of infested plants eliminates all possibility of the pest spreading and damaging other plants in the vicinity."

All inspectors will carry identification cards. The work is under the direction of the County Agricultural Commissioner's department and is designed for the detection and eradication of red scale only. There is no charge for the inspection nor for any required treatment.

Rash of Fires in State Reported Under Control

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Pacific Coast's forest fires appeared under control today.

Breakthrough Scored in Talks on Laos

GENEVA (UPI)—Soviet and American officials today welcomed one breakthrough in the lagging Laos conference, but said a number of obstacles must be overcome before peace in the war-torn jungle kingdom is achieved.

The decision to end a stalemate in the talks enabled Communist and Western Allied representatives to resume negotiations today with restricted sessions.

Sources from East and West agreed that the initial talks on a neutrality declaration should proceed quite smoothly.

"We do not anticipate too much trouble over the neutrality agreement," a Soviet source said. "The proof we are sincere is that we stopped the hostilities in Laos when our side was winning."

However, the Soviet source warned that "controls will be the difficult thing because they reflect differing world interests. The (Communist) Pathet Lao does not want the ICC (International Control Commission) to be used as an instrument against it."

The U. S. spokesman cited key points in the compromise on which the Communists had accepted American proposals. These included:

—Agreement that a Laotian neutrality declaration and international controls are a single entity.

—Agreement that pertinent conference matters, such as the Laos cease-fire, equipment and access for the International Control Commission (ICC) will be discussed.

—Agreements to consider all drafts as equal for purposes of negotiation. Earlier, the Communists had insisted that the Soviet draft protocols on neutrality and control constituted the only proper basis for discussion.

Professional Shares Advice With Stymied Summer Cooks

By SUE RAYMOND

Informality breeds patio and poolside parties during the Springs off-season summer months, and according to Mrs. Santos (Lynda) de Jesus, who has been a professional caterer on the desert for the past 14 years (winter and summer), meal and snack preparations can be simply arranged. Your refrigerator is just filled with foods that, with a little imagination, are party-starting material. Here are some of Lynda's summer suggestions.

Good Food Makes For Fun Picnic

Summer never seems long enough for all the picnicking we plan, so get out the picnic basket now and take advantage of these glorious summer days. And since a picnic is only as good as the food you bring, here are hints to make the outing a success.

Plan menu to include food that is varied in flavor and texture, but will carry well. Pack food in aluminum foil so it will arrive at the picnic fresh and flavorful. Foil keeps flavor in and moisture out and is disposable, so you won't have to carry it home.

Sandwiches, the perennial favorite, can be made more interesting by using several types of bread. Spread bread with butter or margarine, add filling and wrap in aluminum foil. To keep lettuce crisp and tomatoes firm, wrap in foil and add to sandwiches at the picnic.

A welcome addition to any picnic is a meat loaf, prepared the night before, cooled, sliced, and wrapped in aluminum foil. It travels well and stays moist and flavorful. Bread and butter sandwiches taste fine with this.

Hors d'oeuvres created from on-hand foods can be a delightful addition to a summer party. Take a package of sliced luncheon meat and between the slices spread softened cheddar or bleu cheese (for a gourmet touch, add a dash of tabasco and worcestershire sauce and sherry wine to your spread). Cut your layered snack into pie-shaped wedges and place a toothpick in each section.

On slices of boiled ham, spread softened cream cheese seasoned with horseradish, and roll in a sweet gherkin (like a jelly roll). Slice in one-half inch pieces and insert vari-colored toothpicks for eye-appeal and easy-pick-up.

A popular deviled egg filling is salt, pepper, mustard, horseradish, a dash of worcestershire and mayonnaise. When filling your egg white, score your dolled-up yolk with a fork and garnish with parsley flakes, a diced pimiento-stuffed olive or anchovy. For summer snacking, serve julienned raw carrot and potato sticks that have been chilled in ice water. A low-calorie vegetable is the turnip. Cut in thin circular slices, and when placed in ice water, they will conveniently curl.

Good cooked and chilled vegetables are asparagus, cauliflower, and green beans, served with your favorite salad dressing.

You won't be caught short, when summer visitors drop-in at supper time if you serve an Italian salad. It's practically a whole meal. For the fixings, use romaine lettuce, any leftover roast meat, cheese strips, celery, sliced olives, radishes, cucumbers, green onions and carrots. The latter will taste better if par-boiled. Toss your salad ingredients and sprinkle with parmesan cheese. Add a dressing of oil and champagne vinegar (in equal parts) Italian mixed spices, salt, coarse ground black pepper and a dash of garlic. Serve your one-dish dinner, with Italian or French garlic bread. For your bread spread, add garlic juice to melted butter; spread mixture on to bread; top with parmesan cheese and place into oven 'til golden brown.

For an economical pre-prepared company dinner, try a pretty-to-look-at meat loaf. After filling your pan one-half full of your favorite loaf; place near hard-boiled eggs down the center. Fill the remaining half and top loaf with uncooked bacon strips (this adds flavor and keeps loaf from drying out).

When serving, garnish your platter with parsley potatoes and small baked tomatoes, alternately. To prepare the tomatoes, remove top slice and top with butter, grated cheese and season salt. Pop them under the broiler until soft.

Zucchini squash can add a deliciously different touch to a one-dish patio meal. Use leftover bacon or ham. Slice zucchini round-ways and slightly par-boil. Heavily butter your baking dish and place in a layer of zucchini. The second layer consists of cut-up ham or bacon and generous tablespoon of green onions.

Alternate layers with zucchini on top. Salt and pepper to taste. Pour beaten eggs (one per person) over meat-squash combination and top with your favorite cheese. Place in oven at 350 degrees until egg is set and squash is completely cooked (approximately 20 minutes). Serve with stewed tomatoes and french rolls. This same recipe can be prepared in a skillet, omelet-style. (Do not stir after addition of eggs).

"Leg of lamb is a neglected dish, but excellent for a light summer diet. To be roasted correctly, it should be well-done, not pink," observes Lynda. To remove the strong lamb flavor, before roasting season the top side of the roast with a spoonful of mustard and the juice of a lemon.

Lynda, who is adept at getting the most out of meats, says the leg of lamb should be carved from the shank to the top of leg. Because of its cross-grains, it can be carved from any direction. Carved correctly, a good-sized roast should be sufficient for three meals. Serve cold for luncheon with tomatoes and a macaroni or potato salad.

For a second dinner, try lamb curry. For your curry, saute onions, tomatoes, garlic and celery and add curry powder, to taste. Serve over steamed rice.

Fruits are in their prime during the summer months and taste-tempting combinations can be arranged, either plain or over shortbread, for light summer desserts.

A last word from looking-wise Lynda: "Do not neglect hot foods during the summer. The consumption of hot foods will make you feel cooler, but not undernourished."

Sun Protection Necessary In Warm Summer Months

If your family is enthusiastic about outdoor living, you've already discovered that some form of protection from sun is a necessity.

To obtain patio shade protection quickly and economically, here's a one-weekend do-it-yourself project calling for simple tools and handyman skills. The patio roof is built of 4 by 8 foot modular panels that can be installed next to the house or garage, and it can be permanent or just for the season.

Begin by assembling the materials you will need. For a roof 8 feet wide and 12 feet long, you will need three 4 x 8 sheets of 1/2 inch tempered hardboard, six 2 x 6 x 10 lengths of redwood, three 2 x 2 x 8 lengths of redwood and, for the cross braces, eight 1 x 2 x 8 lengths of redwood. These are the basic materials for the roof itself, obtainable from any lumberyard or building supply dealer.

In addition, you will need one 2 x 6 x 10 length of redwood for the outer beam, one 1 x 3 cleat 12 feet long for the inner roof support, and two 1 inch diameter electrical conduits 9 to 10 feet long.

First saw off a wedge-shaped piece of scrap from each end of the 2 x 4 frames. Then cut the 1 x 2 and 2 x 2 cross pieces so that the assembled unit will measure exactly 4 feet wide (approximately 44 1/4 inches long). Before assembling, put the two side frames together and mark the cross piece spacing across the top edges of both frames.

It is a good idea to drill the nail holes in the frames so that the nails will not miss the cross pieces. Then nail the frames to the cross pieces, using 10d casing nails. Set the nails below the surface and fill hole with wood plastic.

After the framework is complete, plane the upper edge of the 2 x 2 end pieces to match the slope of the side frames. The framework is then ready for the tempered hardboard.

For the best results, pre-paint the hardboard panel with a good outdoor undercoat and finish with a non-chalking color you desire before fastening it to the framework. The redwood framework, too, should be prefinished.

Since the hardboard has no grain to rise, nor any of the knots or imperfections of natural wood, it's an ideal painting surface for brush or roller. Another point to note is that hardboard, which is manufactured from wood fiber, is equally strong in all directions so there is no danger of splits or cracks.

To accurately locate the 3/4 inch tapping screws for the roof, turn the hardboard panel upside down on the floor, then place the framework upside down on the hardboard. Mark the location of each cross piece; then remove the framework and drill the holes for the screws. Along the outer edge, screws should be about 8 to 10 inches apart; on the cross piece 16 inches apart. Finally, turn both pieces right side up and screw fasten the panel in place. Be sure to use non-rusting tapping screws.

Build two more units to complete the 8 x 12 roof area. For a longer roof, simply add more 4 foot wide units. If your patio requires a wider roof, 10 foot units can be made similarly providing additional cross pieces are added so that the span between them is never more than 16 inches.

Attach a 1 x 3 cleat about 8 feet above the ground to the garage or house side. This cleat will take the inner edges of the roof panels. The outer support beam is made from the 2 x 6 x 10-redwood board. Drill 1 1/2 inch holes 3 inches deep in the underside of the beam, 6 inches from each end to take 1 inch electrical conduit posts.

For a temporary set-up the conduit may be shoved into firm earth at the end of the patio. The top of the beam should be approximately 7 feet 3 inches above the patio. Slip the panels in place as shown in the sketch and make necessary adjustments in outside beam support; then fasten the panels to the building wall and outer beam.

If you plan to store the panels in the Wintertime, use screen hooks for fasteners.

For a permanent installation set the conduit in concrete and bolt the panels together. Caulk along the points to prevent water from seeping between the individual units.

Since the entire roof has been pre-finished before assembly, you are ready to entertain as soon as the units are fastened in place. With ordinary care, and repainting every few years, your modular sun shade will keep its good looks indefinitely.

This project is an example of the hundreds of simple home improvement and repair jobs possible with easily worked hardboard panels.

Covered Sofa More Summery

To give your living room a summery look, cover a wintry-looking sofa with a temporary slipcover—a washable striped or solid tablecloth, or it may take a pair of cloths for a large couch. Remove this do-it-yourself slipcover often for laundering by hand or machine. Replace it on the sofa while slightly damp, pat it smooth, and it won't need ironing.

Weekly mowing is a must for good lawn appearance. It encourages horizontal growth and spread of newly planted lawns.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television gave the bard a bonus Sunday: a show of his own. William Shakespeare, the most honored playwright of the past TV season, had no trouble holding his own as the star of CBS-TV's "Accent."

What's that? Did someone say, "who cares?" For those who may still regard Willy as a writer who never could make it on TV, as one who appeals only to a tiny audience, may I remind them of the following facts:

The TV public, when last summoned to a national election by the editors of the TV Guide Magazine, chose "Macbeth" as "the best single dramatic program" of the 1960-61 season.

And the people who comprise the TV industry saw things the same way. They sprinkled five "Emmys" upon the "Macbeth" film, topping off the outpouring with the "TV Program of the Year" title.

So you see, Shakespeare has got to be TV's fair-haired boy. He appeals to everyone. Right? In fact, I'm just about ready to accuse CBS of playing follow-the-leader by presenting this rating blockbuster about "sure-thing" Shakespeare.

But seriously, as Danny Thomas once said — or was it Henny Youngman? — I enjoyed what there was of the half-hour "Accent." For the first in a series of summertime visits to European cultural landmarks, "Accent" aimed its cameras at the Royal Shakespeare Theater at Stratford-on-Avon, England.

The visit to the world-famous Shakespeare festival permitted some bright conversationalists to oscillate across the Shakespeare-scope. There were sections of the program devoted to Stratford's history and to a lot of acting from "As You Like It," but I was sorry that producer Bill Kohn had no time left for the cameras to tour the insides of the festival theater.

The discussions, guided by Alexander Kendrick, took place on the lawn outside the theater and gave us a chance to hear how Christopher Plummer, Vanessa Redgrave and Peter Hall, the 30-year-old director at Stratford, feel about the bard.

Hall, the sprightliest of the talkers, seemed to have dedicated himself to the worthy task of eliminating boredom and bores, both off-stage and on, from the theater. He appeared anxious to help actors and audiences get new kicks out of Shakespeare by ridding the plays of lingering traces of Victorian age interpretations.

But Hall didn't seem to be sold on his summertime audiences. "In the summer," he said, "we get rather stuffy audiences. They come to worship." Plummer, a veteran of Shakespeare festivals in the Stratfords of Connecticut and Canada, found audiences at the three places to be equipped with helpful, fresh attitudes. Miss Redgrave, daughter of Michael Redgrave, addressed herself primarily to the Bard's talent-stretching qualities.

Viewers seeking an answer to the question, "Why Shakespeare?" should have been helped by this program, brief though it was.

What's Your View on Aid?

We've spent $90 billion on foreign aid without impressive results.

The question now is: Should we spend another $4.8 billion?

President Kennedy played on the emotions of the nation's mothers in an effort to sell continuation of this spending spree by picturing the new foreign aid program as the only alternative to sending American boys back into battle. He admits that the vast sums spent in the past did not bring desired results. But from now on, the President says, things will be different.

About the only thing different in the new proposal, as we see it, is to obligate this country to a 5-year plan over which he will have control. Congress is not going to like that idea, we predict.

Every time, it seems, when a new foreign aid program comes up for a vote in Congress the nation is facing another international crisis. The program is sold to the American people — and Congress — as the only way out of our difficulties. But is it?

No one can say what might have happened if this nation had scrapped the whole thing years ago before we were so deeply committed. Many people believe we would be far better off today; others think Russia would be having things all its own way by now. But in many respects they almost have, anyway. More people have been brought under their domination during the spending spree than ever before. It makes people wonder.

Many national leaders including Dwight Eisenhower believe that the program must be continued. Their opinions should be given serious consideration. They may be right.

On the other hand there is grave doubt on the part of many other Americans that the money spent on foreign aid will buy freedom, security and peace. Anyone who really thought so would support the program without question. But will it do what President Kennedy and other supporters of the measure — including the Citizens Committee for International Development — say, and probably honestly believe, it will? It's a big question.

Along with citizens all across the nation, the people of Palm Springs should make up their minds how they feel about this issue and write their Senators and Congressman about it. They will consider, and be influenced in their vote by, your views.

Professor Rene Etiemble of the less pardonable. After all, sport- Sorbonne, who is leading a new charge against the invasion of French speech by English words, had better save his breath to cool his anger. Noble as his aim may be in summoning the sportsmen of France to the defense of their language, the effort is vain. People who can not only call a radio announcer un speaker but coin a French equivalent for all these feminine, use speakerine, people terms, deserve professional censure who have produced a verb like sure-matcher, who call a hike un footing, whose most stable institution is La Jockey Club de France, are beyond redemption. The professor would do better, without Anglo-American imports, perhaps, to lead a charge against More slip in every day, first in the advertising agencies and the quotation marks and within a few popular press, which are corrupt-months totally assimilated. It is a ing their language in a manner trend of the times.

Palm Springs realtors were told that the population of Riverside County would double by 1965, creating a vast demand for new homes. The speaker, D. D. Watson, real estate commissioner, said Gov. Earl Warren was "quite optimistic" about the possibilities of additional water for Southern California from the Feather River.

Warren Slaughter resigned his position as deputy district attorney for the Indio District because of the press of private business. He was practicing law from offices on Palm Canyon Drive.

Manager Mary Nelson announced Palm Springs Airport had been given a "superior" rating by the Airplane Owners and Pilots Association.

Why pay rent? Two fine, small four-room homes, two bedrooms, hardwood floors; tile drain board; with garage. Reduced to $1,575. $50 down (less can be arranged) and monthly payments $20 (including interest) — advertisement by a Banning builder.

Police Commissioner Theodore Krumm announced that no matter how high the thermometer soars, the women of Redlands must be properly clad when they appear in public, or else — the or else being the guarantee of a trip to the cooler. (In short, shorts were verboten).

Freak winds and lightning swept the desert area during the early morning hours, awakening light sleepers. No damage was reported locally, but it was reported Imperial Valley points were hard hit.

Congressman Cyrenus Cole of Iowa asserted that bigger and thicker slices of ham will mean a return of prosperity to the livestock growers of the country. An editor agreed that the advice should be especially noted by restaurant operators.

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I was asked to be an usher at my friends wedding. Of course I intend to take my sweetheart along. Now they tell me I am supposed to stick all evening with the bridesmaid assigned to me. If so, I must decline, for I am not going to neglect my girl for some bridesmaid I don't care anything about. Please answer me right away.

DEAR PHIL: If being a courteous "escort" to the bridesmaid assigned to you is asking too much in return for the honor of being an usher at your friend's wedding, by all means decline. Perhaps the bridesmaid also prefers the company of another, but she accepted because she felt honored to have been chosen.

DEAR ABBY: There is a woman in our neighborhood who hires an eleven-year-old girl to baby-sit after school with her baby who is less than a year old. When this woman was asked how she could entrust her baby to the care of an eleven-year-old child, she replied, "She doesn't have to do a thing. She knows how to use the telephone. All I want her for is to call the fire department and get the baby out of the house in case a fire breaks out."

Don't you think she should be reported to the authorities?

A NEIGHBOR DEAR NEIGHBOR: Certainly not! Some eleven-year-olds have more sense than some of their "grownup" neighbors.

DEAR ABBY: I met a girl back in 1934. We really went for each other. I got transferred out of town because of my job. I thought this girl would wait for me, but she didn't. She married somebody else instead. Now I am transferred back to my home town, where she lives. She heard I was back, so she called me and told me she wanted to see me again. She said she wanted me to come to her house and meet her husband and family. (She has two children.) I would like to see her for old times' sake. Should I accept?

UNDECIDED DEAR UNDECIDED: If you want to see her again, for "old times' sake," accept her invitation. But dig up a date and ask if you can bring a "friend."

CONFIDENTIAL TO ESTHER Pay your own way. The "free" trip he has offered you could be more expensive than you think.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

Now is the time I wish someone slew
The jerk who asks, "Hot enough for you?"

Nobody would miss him except perhaps his mother and there are probably times she is hard put to resist the impulse.

IT'S TIME to dust off that oldie: "It isn't the heart, it's the humanity."

My memory may be faulty but it seems to me we have more humid days than back when there was little more than sage brush outside of the village.

Many people are inclined to blame the increase in humid days to the great number of swimming pools we now have.

NOT SO, according to what a UC at Riverside professor told me.

He said it was the great increase in planting that did it. The stuff that the plants pour out into the air makes it humid, he claimed.

He explained it all of the way from Banning to Palm Springs but I didn't take notes because we were on a bus and I knew I could never read what I had written, what with the sway of the vehicle aiding and abetting my scrawls.

ANYWAY, it's when you fix yourself a glass of ice water and set it down. In a short time there's almost as much water outside as there is inside, of the glass.

That's humidity. Down in the coastal area where people "tsk tsk" when they read our temperature figures, they suffer more than we do.

Outside of public buildings, air conditioning is a rarity.

STORY IN THE SUN by Peyton Canary concerning the study being made here of the habits of lizards recalls high heat here in summers many years ago.

Judge Gene Theriault then had an office just a few doors from The Sun office and I used to stop in there to find out what was new.

One sizzling day in August he told me to keep an eye on the lizards.

THE SIDEWALK is so hot, he explained, that when the lizards want to cross it that they have to stand up on their hind legs and walk that way to keep from burning their bellies.

"Watch that one!" he said as a lizard scurried across the dirt toward the sidewalk. But just then a rare pedestrian braving the heat, came along and the lizard streaked back to the cover of a rock.

PERHAPS this couple studying lizards can verify this story. The late Frank Partridge had an office in the same building with the judge. Someone suggested frying an egg on the sidewalk. Frank pooh-poohed the idea.

"That's old stuff," he said. "Let's pop some corn. It will look like snow and maybe cool us off."

So he scattered some kernels on the hot sidewalk and we waited. Nothing happened.

And Frank had to hunt up a broom and sweep the stuff into the gutter.

East Germans Say 'Universe' Pageant Rigged

BERLIN (UPI)— East German Communists today accused the United States of rigging the Miss Universe contest to spur the flight of East German refugees to the West.

The official Communist youth newspaper "Young World" said Marlene Schmidt, 24-year old German electronics engineer, was chosen Miss Universe at Miami Beach Saturday only because she fled to West Germany from the Soviet zone a year ago.

Young World did find some consolation in the choice, however. It said it proved conditions in East Germany could not be too bad if an East German girl had good enough measurements to impress contest judges.

SUMMER SNAKE THREAT

Parents Experience Extra Concern

(Second of a three-part series on snakes in this area this year)

By KEN REICH
Sun Staff Writer

Generally speaking, the persons most worried about snakes in the Palm Springs area are those who live in outlying sections.

Mrs. Eileen Torelli, of 68-971 Olancha Road, off Date Palm Road, is fairly typical in this regard.

As a mother of four children, aged 9, 7, 5, and 4, she is naturally concerned when she hears that two deadly sidewinders have been sighted within a block of her home within the last two weeks.

"In case one of my children is bitten, I wouldn't know what to do," Mrs. Torelli says. "I find my neighbors don't know much either, considering they live in the desert. Most people, and especially women, get panicky with something they don't know much about."

Mrs. Torelli, like most mothers in Palm Springs, would like to gain some foolproof protection against the reptiles, at least on her own property.

But when she and others go to the four local pest control companies for help they are apt to hear quite conflicting stories. In short, two of the companies state they can guarantee homeowners complete protection against snakes, one says it can only under certain conditions, and one denies any complete protection is possible.

The most confident of the local companies is Master Pest Control. "We can give complete protection," its manager, Larry Embree stated flatly.

Embree's firm is using a snake repellent called "Snake-Stop," a granular chemical which has been used in the San Fernando and Sacramento Valleys "with complete success." It is said to provide protection from six weeks to two months.

Depending on the size of the yard, Embree said the cost of the service is quite low. "Normally, it is about $5 if we apply it and about $2.50 if you buy it and put it on yourself." The chemical comes in salt shaker-like containers and may be easily applied by sprinkling it evenly over the ground.

"Snakes don't come close," Embree said. "If they do, it kills them, but it is primarily a repellent. The minute they smell it, they take off."

While conceding the snake would live on for quite a while after absorbing the deadly chemical through its scales, Embree was adamant in declaring that no snake would conceivably stay in the area. Thus, even if it might not die for several days, it would not be around to threaten the property-owner, or his children.

Ray's Desert Pest Control is nearly as certain it can guarantee protection from snakes as Master Pest Control is, though it uses a regular insect spray rather than any specific snake control insecticide.

When asked whether Ray's could guarantee homeowners protection against reptiles, Charles Coffey, an employee of the concern, answered, "Oh yes. It doesn't cost any more than a tank of gas either—five to six dollars at most."

The spray is preventative. "It doesn't kill the snakes. It keeps 'em keE," Coffey stated. Duration of its effectiveness was said to be a little over 300 days.

If Master and Ray's Pest Control think they can provide certain protection, the other two local exterminator outfits make no such claims and are highly dubious about the statements of their competitors.

Negative Note

Ted Watkins of Western Exterminator Company, for example, claims "There isn't anything you can do for an individual. You can do a spray job over a large area which will be effective for a couple of weeks, but you can't do do to protect themselves, other than trying insecticides. Since snakes like shelter, large bushes or piles of rubbish in yards are a virtual invitation to them. The reptiles can't stand the heat of the day, and in fact will die within 15 minutes if exposed to the summer sun. By clearing yards of things they can hide under, residents take a gigantic stride toward protection at little expense. Surprisingly enough, a dog is little help in case snakes invade one's property. The best protective animal is a cat. Smith, for instance, has a small black cat "which has killed and eaten numerous snakes." The agile animals are particularly good at teasing the reptiles until they can get in a position to pounce on their back and kill them. Very few cats are bitten, while dogs seldom escape, once approached by a snake. A cat's odor tends to repel snakes. "And of course," Mersch says, "there is no better protection than a good fence." But it must be good, for snakes have an uncanny way of finding the least means of ingress and using it. One thing to remember too, all experts emphasize, is that there are only two poisonous types of snakes on the California desert. Other types are not dangerous and may even aid in the fight against the poisonous variety.

MIKEY FINN of Palm Springs and Frank Sinatra, Hollywood man, make like good friends during takes on a new film produced by Sinatra now filming, but when the cameras roll the pair pair off. They are now putting on celluloid what is being termed the funniest western saloon brawl yet filmed. The picture is titled 'Soldiers 3.'

Polaris Cruising As First Anniversary Marked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy's fourth Polaris submarine headed for patrol duty today on the first anniversary of the initial sub-surface firing of a Polaris missile off Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Twelve hours after the Theodore Roosevelt had left Charleston, S.C., the Navy said it was on its way to take up as secret patrol station similar to those already assigned to the submarines George Washington, Patrick Henry and Robert E. Lee.

Like the other three, the Theodore Roosevelt carried 15 28-foot-long missiles. Like the others also, it is to use two alternating crews and to be on patrol two thirds of the time.

One more Polaris sub, the Abraham Lincoln, is to be deployed before the end of this year. The total on stations is to increase to nine by the end of 1962, to 13 by the end of 1963, and to 25 by the end of 1964.

Beginning with the sixth submarine, the maximum range of the missiles is to be increased from 1,380 to 1,725 statute miles.

Dodgers Win; Angels Split

Podres Win Puts Bums 3 Off Pace

CINCINNATI (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers are out to narrow the two and a half game margin between them and the league-leading Reds tonight when they take on Cincinnati for the final game of a two game series.

The Dodgers hope to put a further dent in the armor of the league leaders before leaving here for a three game visit to St. Louis opening Friday.

Don Drysdale (7-5) is expected to take the mound for the second-place Dodgers tonight against Joey Jay (13-4).

Southpaw Johnny Podres pitched the visitors to an 8-3 victory Wednesday night to narrow the margin.

The chunky left-hander scattered nine hits in notching his 11th victory against two losses. The defeat, charged to Bob Purkey, was the fourth in a row for the Reds.

Norm Larker, with three for three, led the Dodgers' 11-hit attack. Two Red errors contributed to three Dodger unearned runs.

Purkey's throwing error paved the way for two unearned runs during a four run third inning for the Dodgers.

Larker and Charlie Neal opened the inning with singles. Purkey then fielded Johnny Podres' bunt, and with the chance for a force play at third, threw over Gene Freese's head, permitting Larker to score.

Maury Wills bounced out Purkey to Gordy Coleman, but when the latter tried to pick Podres off second, Neal scampered home from third. Willie Davis scored Podres with a single to center. After John Roseboro popped out, Wally Moon singled and Tommy Davis doubled to account for the fourth and final run of the inning.

The Reds, who scored a run in the second inning on Wally Post's triple and Coleman's double, added a second run in the fourth inning on singles by Frank Robinson, Freese and Coleman.

The Dodgers went on another four run spurge in the sixth inning as they routed Purkey. A walk, four singles and Jerry Zimmerman's throwing error did the damage. Post doubled home the Reds' third run in the ninth.

Luzano Paces Colony To 9-5 Lead On Telco

Joe Luzano led the way with Polo Grounds last night as the Mexican Colony won a 9-5 victory two singles and a home run at the over the Telephone Company in a Desert Softball League game.

The Colony scored twice in the first, three times in the second, twice in the fourth, and twice in the fifth to score its win.

Mike Dilley and Frank Kibbey, the two Telephone Company pitchers, both failed to stem the tide. Frank Prieto was mound winner.

The Phenomenon managed to take the lead in the first with two runs, but could do little after that as the Mexican Colony came back to tie it up in the same inning.

Four singles by Al Stucher, Tom Rafferty, Dino Di Grandi, and Jug Cummins brought the two runs across for the Phenomenon. They added three more in the seventh when Stucher homered and Rafferty doubled.

Stucher went three for four for the evening to boost his batting average to .524.

The Colony only got eight hits to the Phenomenon's 12, but their were better placed. Ray Reyes got two singles and Donnie Mendoza, Frank Prieto, and Davy Martinez also got hits.

Ailing Venturi Defends Title In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Ken Venturi, recovering from about a "walking pneumonia" and playing with blistered hands, started defense of his title today in the second annual $30,000 Milwaukee Open golf tournament to play against a top field, including Masters champion Gary Player.

Venturi, San Francisco, ailing in recent months from a lung virus, shot a one-under-par 69 on the North Hills County Club course in Wednesday's pro-am.

A drug used to treat his virus caused a rash and blisters on his hands.

Player, the South African now playing out of Langhorne, Pa., one of the tournament favorites, arrived too late in Milwaukee to take part in the preliminaries. He started practically cold in Wednesday's first round field of 146 professionals and amateurs.

Don January, Dallas, Tex., winner of the recent St. Paul Open, rated as another top contender on the strength of his 64 in pro-am play. The six-under-par was low for the day and earned him top money of $425 in the preliminary.

Twins Cop Opener 6-0 On Homers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Angels have a day of rest today and they need it after splitting a doubleheader Wednesday night with the Minnesota Twins.

The Twins won the opener 6-0 as Camilo Pascual threw a five-hitter and struck out 15 Angels. Rookie outfielder Lee Thomas hit a ninth homer to break a tie and give the Angels a 2-1 win in the nightcap.

The two teams set a major league doubleheader record of 39 strikeouts.

The Angels open a new series Friday night at Wrigley Field against the Washington Senators. Manager Bill Rigney plans to start southpaw Ted Bowsfield (5-3) against Ed Hobaugh (6-4).

In the strikeout binge Wednesday night, three Angel pitchers—starter and loser Eli Grba (5-10), Ronnie Kline and Tom Morgan fanned a total of seven.

In the nightcap, Angel starter Jim Donohue fanned seven and reliever Art Fowler fanned. Fowler (4-2) got credit for the victory although he pitched to only two men in the ninth. Donohue had held the Twins scoreless until the top of the ninth when Harmon Killebrew tied the game at 1-1 with a homer. It was his 29th of the season.

Killebrew hit a two run homer in the first inning of the opening game to put the Twins out in front. All the six runs in this game were accounted for by homers. Bob Allison hit one in the fifth inning with two men aboard and another with the bases empty in the seventh. He had two singles and two homers in five times at bat in the opener, driving in four runs.

In the nightcap, the Angels got their first run in the third inning. Albie Pearson walked and went to third when Billy Moran flied out to right. Allison was given an error on the throw-in when the ball ended up in the Twin dugout. With Pearson on third, Ken Hunt laid down a bunt along the third base line and squeezed little Albie home.

Patterson Asked For Lavarante Or Crown Forfeiture

NEW YORK (UPI) — Promoter George Parnassus of Los Angeles said today, "I believe Floyd Patterson is letting half the heavyweight crown slip right off his head by ignoring my $500,000 offer for a defense against Alejandro Lavarante at the Los Angeles Coliseum."

Parnassus, best known fight promoter on the Pacific Coast, explained, "Because neither Patterson nor his handlers will even consider my legitimate offer for a defense against one of the top six contenders, I'll have to demand that the National Boxing Association vacate his crown."

RECORD TIE number of hits in consecutive doubleheaders is proudly shown by Bill White, who tallied 14 for the Cards to tie mark set by late Ty Cobb. White set NL record in fifth frame of second, with seven singles and double. (UPI Telephoto)

Fishing Fine As Skiers Gone

BIG BEAR — Big Bear Lake has been closed to water skiers as of Tuesday, July 18, leaving the lake wide open for fishermen, the Department of Fish and Game announced.

The Bear Valley Mutual Water Co., which owns and manages the lake, said the combination of low water level and protruding stumps has made the lake too dangerous for water skiing.

Boats on the lake have been restricted to a speed limit of no more than ten miles an hour.

Anglers should have fine fishing in Big Bear Lake, the DFG noted. The Department this week planted some 2500 pounds of rainbow trout ranging in size from eight to ten inches.

In addition, the Big Bear Lake Park District this week planted 2000 pounds of larger rainbows weighing up to two pounds each.
